Forty years ago The Band released its first album – Music from Big Pink – and among these musicians was a son of Stratford, the late Richard Manuel. His first band, The Revols, became a Stratford success story when The Hawk hired them as his own back-up ensemble.

Holiday Monday brings together The Hawk and all the present members of The Revols. Garth Picot with Doug

Rhodes in Reload. John Till in B.W. Pawley and Plum Loco. A local band which might just be the new Revols starts the show.

Hosted by David Mickie Marsden, The Revol's original manager who twice became a Rock 'n' Roll Disc Jockey Hall of Famer.
